Conditions of sale.

(1) The purchaser should remit to the nearest Treasury one-fourth value of the timber purchased by him within five days from the date of sale. Failing this the timber purchased will be resold at the risk of the defaulting bidder. If any loss results in such resale, the defaulting bidder will have to make it good but he will not have any claim for any profit that may accrue from such resale.

(2) The three-fourth value of the purchase should be remitted within 30th June 1911. Failing which the one-fourth value already paid will be forfeited to Government and the lot resold at the risk of the defaulting bidder as per para (1) supra.

(3) No purchaser should remove any logs from the depot-yard until he has paid for them in full and has obtained a permit for such removal.
